

Tim Sparrow DO , MICO, MGOsC(UK), MGNRPO (BE)

Tim qualified in 1990 from the Maidstone College of Osteopathy and then worked as Co-principal at the John Wernham Academy of Osteopathy in Belgium until 1995 and in private practice in the UK until 2000 .

He was part of the team responsible for establishing and developing the Bsc of Ost . Medicine courses and research at the the Surrey Institute of Osteopathic Medicine (UK) .

He is a part of the lecture team within the Foundation and Advanced courses in Classical Osteopathy within the UK and associate schools in Canada , Japan and Europe , including Spain , Italy and Sweden.

2000 - Chairman for the First International Osteopathic Paediatric conference 2000 (NVO 2000) , Jaarbeurs ,Utrecht.

From 2000-2013 he worked in Voorschoten , Holland and as an assistant osteopath in a midwifery centre (pre / postnatal care) , in Alphen A/d Riyn .

He moved to Belgium in 2014 and worked until April 2016 at the Open Therapeuticum Centre in Leuven , where he was part of the therapy group providing osteopathic re-integration and rehabilitation for patients with Head trauma , Spinal Injuries ,Motor and co-ordination disorder , MS , Stress and Fatigue .

He currently works as an associate osteopath at Huisartspraktijk GP Wijgmaal Close to Leuven.

2016 – Speaker at the International Conference on Trauma ,ANS and Osteopathy , Multi-systems approach to the osteopathic treatment of Multiple Sclerosis., Osteopathie Schule Deutschland, Berlin

Research : In 1995 he provided guidance for osteopathic research in Lausanne Switzerland (Centre Hospital University Vaudois) , into the osteopathic post operative management of spinal hemi-laminectomy , (Prospective Clinical Study with Comparison group) under taken by Pascal Groloux DO - Belgium .

He has an interest in developing mobile and tablet based data entry and analytic tools for use in osteopathic clinic audits and research , and is a hobbyist in 3D design / printing .

www.osteopathy4u.eu ; Tel. +32 (0)471 22 79 58

